

Here's what happens...

King David leads a parade to bring the Ark of the Lord back to Israel. It's a big celebration, with music and dancing.

David is wearing clothes that make him not look like a king, and his wife isn't happy. But David knows that God is praiseworthy, so we celebrate him.

Bible Point:

God is praiseworthy,
so we celebrate him.

"So don't be afraid; you are more valuable to God than a whole flock of sparrows" (Matthew 10:31).

Family Together Time

Throw a party to celebrate what God has done for your family.

- Hang balloons.
- Bake a cake.
- Think of gifts you can give to God.
- Make signs thanking God for what he has done and for who he is.
- Play party games.
- Play worship music and dance along.

Talk About This...

- Tell about the most fun celebration or party you've ever been to.
What were you celebrating?
