

God Is Faithful to Nehemiah Nehemiah 1–2

Here's what happens...

Nehemiah is in exile when he hears that the wall around Jerusalem is in ruins. He cries out to God for help. God is faithful to provide Nehemiah with all the supplies, protection, and courage he needs to rebuild the wall. Nehemiah is faithful to do what God has called him to do.

Bible Point:

God is faithful, so we're faithful.

*"For I am about to do something new. See, I have already begun! Do you not see it?"
(Isaiah 43:19).*

Through the Week

- In the Bible story, the king wrote letters to support Nehemiah's mission. Write letters to each other to show support and encouragement.
- Include examples of how God has been faithful to the people you're writing to.
- Include examples of how they've been faithful.
- Include a prayer for them to continue to be faithful.
- If you have younger kids who can't yet write, they could either draw encouraging pictures or dictate a letter for an older family member to write.
- Have a Letter Exchange Day at the end of the week where you give all your letters to each other.

Talk About This...

- Tell about someone you consider to be faithful.
