

Here's what happens...

One Sabbath day, Jesus sees a man with a deformed hand. He boldly calls the man up in front of everyone to heal him, even though the religious leaders consider healing “work”—forbidden on the Sabbath. Jesus boldly defends his actions as he heals the man.

Bible Point:

Jesus is bold, so we're bold.

*“A friend is always loyal, and a brother is born to help in time of need”
(Proverbs 17:17).*

Through the Week

Play a fun game called Dared or Scared!

- Look for opportunities to do bold things that reflect Jesus' love or service.
- When you see an opportunity, dare a family member to be bold! Here are some ideas.
 - If you see someone struggling to lift something into a grocery cart, help that person.
 - At a coffee shop, pay for someone in line behind you.
 - Say hi to someone who looks sad.
 - Offer to pray for someone who's begging for money.
 - Skip your video game time to help someone else with a chore.

Talk About This...

- What's the boldest thing you've ever seen someone do for Jesus?