

Here's what happens...

The psalmist delights in God's Word, storing it in his heart so he won't sin against God. When King Belshazzar is sinning against God, God sends a finger to write God's judgment on the wall. Daniel, who knows God's Word, is able to discern what the writing on the wall means about the king's sinful behavior.

Bible Point:

God's Word helps us live right.

"Your word is a lamp to guide my feet and a light for my path" (Psalm 119:105).

Through the Week

- Use oil or soap to write a Bible verse on your bathroom mirror.
- When the mirror gets steamy during a shower or bath, the verse will show up!
- Choose any verse you want! Here are a few ideas:
 - "I have hidden your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you" (Psalm 119:11).
 - "Dear children, let's not merely say that we love each other; let us show the truth by our actions" (1 John 3:18).
 - "Avoid worthless, foolish talk that only leads to more godless behavior" (2 Timothy 2:16).
 - "Be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you" (Ephesians 4:32).

Talk About This...

- What's a part of the Bible you're interested in reading more?